Sarah Brown begins her fifth year as the head coach of the Penn State women's gymnastics team in 2022. Brown was named the eighth head coach of the Penn State women's gymnastics program on May 4, 2017. A two-time Big 12 Conference Gymnast of the Year, Brown came to Happy Valley after serving as the head coach at Eastern Michigan University.

Brown helped guide four Nittany Lions to NCAA Regional appearances as the team battled through adversity in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic in 2021. Penn State finished the season ranked 33rd in RoadToNationals rankings, recording an average score of 195.283. The Nittany Lions shined on bars throughout the season, closing out the year ranked 19th on the apparatus with a national qualifying score of 49.231.

Three Nittany Lions garnered All-Big Ten accolades, with sophomore Cassidy Rushlow being named to the first team, and seniors Alissa Bonsall and Ava Verdeflor earning second team honors.

It marked the second all-conference honor for Rushlow, who recorded six event titles and three all-around victories for Penn State. She posted five scores of 9.900 or above on the year and set career-highs on four of five apparatuses in addition to setting an all-around career-high of 39.475 in Penn State's win over Maryland on Feb. 5.

Bonsall and Verdeflor both had tremendous fourth years at Penn State, each bolstering their resumes with career-bests. Bonsall recorded personal bests on both floor and bars, tying for Penn State's best bars score of the year with a 9.950 at the NCAA Morgantown regional. Verdeflor set two personal-bests of her own, matching Bonsall's bars score with a 9.950 at the Big Five Meet in addition to setting a career-high of 9.875 on beam against Illinois.

As a team, Penn State recorded eight scores above a 49.000 on bars, four scores above 49.000 on both beam and floor and one on vault.

Brown led the Nittany Lions to eight dual-meet wins in 2020, including four against Big Ten opponents, and a No. 30 ranking in the RoadToNationals standings. Penn State earned five scores above a 196.000, its most since 2015. The Nittany Lions averaged a 196.230 in five home meets, their highest since 2015. PSU claimed wins over four ranked opponents, including No. 32 Iowa, No. 24 Maryland, No. 31 Michigan State and No. 27 NC State. No postseason events were held after the season was canceled on March 12 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Nittany Lions finished the season with a 195.860 National Qualifying Score (NQS). Penn State ranked 21st in the nation on bars (49.130 NQS) and held a 49.045 NQS on floor. On the season, PSU had five scores above a 49.000 on bars, five scores above a 49.000 on floor, four on beam and two on vault. Penn State earned team-high scores of 49.300 on vault (Big Five Meet, 2/22), 49.300 on bars (West Virginia, 1/11), 49.325 on beam (Florida, 3/7) and 49.375 on floor (Iowa, 1/25).

The Nittany Lions tallied in overall team-high of 196.575 in their Quad Meet sweep over NC State, Cornell and Towson. Junior Lauren Bridgens was named All-Big Ten first team, becoming the ninth Nittany Lion to earn at least three first-team All-Big Ten honors in their career. Bridgens won 13 event titles, including four all-around. She tallied six scores of 9.900 and eight all-around scores above a 39.000. Bridgens finished the season ranked 28th in the nation in all-around, 47th on bars and 51st on floor.

The Nittany Lions finished the season with a 195.860 National Qualifying Score (NQS). Penn State ranked 21st in the nation on bars (49.130 NQS) and held a 49.045 NQS on floor. On the season, PSU had five scores above a 49.000 on bars, five scores above a 49.000 on floor, four on beam and two on vault.

Penn State earned team-high scores of 49.300 on vault (Big Five Meet, 2/22), 49.300 on bars (West Virginia, 1/11), 49.325 on beam (Florida, 3/7) and 49.375 on floor (Iowa, 1/25). The Nittany Lions tallied in overall team-high of 196.575 in their Quad Meet sweep over NC State, Cornell and Towson.

Junior Lauren Bridgens was named All-Big Ten first team, becoming the ninth Nittany Lion to earn at least three first-team All-Big Ten honors in their career. Bridgens won 13 event titles, including four all-around. She tallied six scores of 9.900 and eight all-around scores above a 39.000. Bridgens finished the season ranked 28th in the nation in all-around, 47th on bars and 51st on floor.

Freshman Cassidy Rushlow garnered All-Big Ten second team accolades. She won five event titles, including one in all-around. Rushlow was ranked 39th in the country in all-around and 63rd on beam. She earned four scores of 9.900 or better and five all-around scores above a 39.000.

In 2019, the Nittany Lions had a 10-9 meet record, including victories over No. 21 Arizona State, No. 22 Ohio State, No. 27 NC State, No. 32 Temple and No. 34 Illinois. Penn State placed fifth in the Big Ten Championships, hosted at Rec Hall. Penn State was selected for the NCAA Regional in Ann Arbor and finished third in the Session I meet against No. 7 Michigan, No. 10 Alabama and No. 26 Ohio State. The Nittany Lions ended the season ranked No. 24 in the RoadToNationals poll, it's highest finish since 2015.

Senior Sabrina Garcia and freshman Jessie Bastardi qualified for the NCAA Championships. Garcia earned a 9.900 on bars at the NCAA Regional, tying for the top score in the regional and tying her score from 2017 for PSU's top bars score in a regional. Bastardi secured a 9.900 on beam at the NCAA Regional, also matching the top score in the regional and tying Meredith Hoover (2003) for the top beam score in PSU regional history. Sophomore Lauren Bridgens was a first-team All-Big Ten selection, while Garcia earned second-team accolades.

2022 PENN STATE WOMEN'S GYMNASTICS

In her first season at Penn State, Brown led the Nittany Lions to an 11-8 meet record, including three wins over ranked opponents. The Nittany Lions made an appearance in the NCAA Regionals and finished the season with a No. 32 national ranking.

Two Penn State gymnasts earned All-America honors with freshman Lauren Bridgens and senior Briannah Tsang claiming those accolades. Tsang was the Big Ten Gymnast of the Year, the eighth in program history, after winning the individual floor exercise title at the Big Ten Championships. Bridgens and Tsang were first-team All-Big Ten selections, while junior Sabrina Garcia was a second-team honoree. Bridgens competed in the All-Around at the NCAA Championships.

On March 4, 2018, Bridgens set a Nittany Lion record with a perfect 10 on the uneven bars. Tsang earned two top five scores in program history on the floor exercise.

During her lone season as the head coach of the Eastern Michigan women's gymnastics team in 2017, Brown led the Eagles to the Mid-American Conference (MAC) regular-season title, the MAC Championship, an appearance at the NCAA Regionals and a final national ranking of No. 27. At the 2017 MAC Gymnastics Championships, Eastern Michigan tallied its second-best score in program history (196.500), recorded a school record on the uneven bars (49.300) and three gymnasts tied for the uneven bars title.

During the 2016-17 season, a total of 10 Eastern Michigan gymnasts were named Academic All-MAC and five were selected MAC Distinguished Scholars. Four of the Eagles' MAC Distinguished scholars owned a grade-point average of 3.85 or higher.

Brown served for one season as a volunteer assistant coach at the University of Michigan during the 2015-16 year, helping the Wolverines win the 2016 Big Ten Championship. She assisted on all four events and helped with development of daily practice plans. Her role with the Wolverines also included assisting with community service, recruiting and team travel.

Before joining the Michigan coaching staff, Brown was an assistant women's gymnastics coach at Southeast Missouri State University for three seasons, where she was selected the Midwest Independent Conference (MIC) Assistant Coach of the Year in 2014. Brown was the head beam coach and beam/floor choreographer and helped develop three MIC individual champions in 2014, two MIC Freshman of the Year selections and four NCAA regional all-around competitors.

She also was the director of operations for the University of Missouri women's gymnastics program for one year before starting her collegiate coaching career.

Brown began her collegiate gymnastics career at the University of Utah for one season before completing her collegiate career at the University of Missouri. A four-time All-American at Mizzou, she was the Tigers' Female Athlete of the Year in 2009 and 2010 and earned the Director of Athletics Leadership Award in 2010.

Along with her All-America plaudits, Brown was selected the Big 12 Conference Gymnast of the Year in 2009 and 2010, was named to the All-Big 12 Championship Team nine times and was a nominee for the 2010 Honda Broderick Cup. A 2015 Missouri Athletics Hall of Fame inductee, Brown was named the 2008 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year and earned South Central Regional Gymnast of the Year honors twice (2009-10).

While she was at Utah, Brown was a member of the team that finished second at the NCAA Women's Gymnastics Championships in 2007.

Prior to her collegiate gymnastics career, she was a four-time member of the USA National Team (2002-05).

A two-time graduate of the University of Missouri, Brown earned a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies with an emphasis in communication and business in 2010 and a master's of education in counseling psychology with an emphasis in sport psychology in 2012.

A native of Columbia, Missouri, the former Sarah Shire is married to Antonio Brown. They have two sons, Isaiah and Elijah.

2022 NITTANY LIONS COACHING STAFF

INNISS

ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND SEASON
AUBURN '12

Inniss returned to coaching after being a professional dancer at Walt Disney World for four years at Beauty and the Beast Live.

Inniss has a daughter named Charlotte.

Rachel Inniss joined the Penn State Women's Gymnastics program as an assistant coach in October 2020. She arrived in Happy Valley after spending two years as an assistant coach at Temple.

In her first season at Penn State, Assistant Coach Rachel Inniss made a strong impact on the Penn State floor team. Under Inniss' guidance, the Nittany Lions ranked third in the region northeast on floor with a NQS of 49.088. Melissa Astarita ascended to fourth in the northeast region on floor this season. The junior opened the season with eight consecutive meets with a score of at least 9.8. Senior Allissa Bonsall (11) and sophomore Cassidy Rushlow (15) also ranked in the top 15 in the region. Astarita's success carried to the national stage, as she was an individual NCAA Regional Qualifier.

As an assistant coach at Temple, Inniss helped Temple to consecutive ECAC championships. The Owls finished the 2020 season with the conference's highest National Qualifying Score (NQS).

Inniss led Temple's beam and floor teams, helping the floor team to lead the conference. The beam squad ranked second in the ECAC. The Owls earned the program's second-highest beam score and fifth-highest floor score in 2020, helping Temple to post three of the top six overall scores in program history.

The Owls placed three athletes among the Top 10 beam performers in the ECAC, including Delaney Garin's conference-leading 9.815 NQS. Temple also had three of the Top 10 floor athletes in the ECAC. Ariana Castrence paced the conference with a 9.825 NQS.

In 2019, Inniss earned ECAC Assistant Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Owls to their first ever ECAC title. Temple led the conference with a 194.865 overall NQS and a 48.990 NQS on floor. India Anderson claimed the ECAC's top floor NQS, 9.870, while Monica Servidio led the conference on beam with a 9.850 NQS.

Inniss graduated from Auburn in 2012, with a degree in public administration. She won an NCAA Regional Floor title and qualified for the NCAA Championships in 2010.

She served as a student coach during her fifth year at Auburn and returned as a volunteer coach in 2017 and 2018. As a volunteer coach, she worked with beam and floor, directing the choreography for both. She coached two floor All-Americans and three All-SEC gymnasts.

2022 NITTANY LIONS COACHING STAFF

Ralph Rosso joined the Nittany Lions coaching staff in August 2021 after four seasons at the University of Washington.

"I couldn't be more excited to add Ralph to our staff!" Brown said. "From the moment we first spoke, I knew his values aligned with our program philosophy and it was going to be a perfect fit. Ralph brings a wealth of knowledge and experience that we will benefit from right away and I can't wait for him to begin working with our team!"

Rosso served as the head coach of the Huskies for the 2021 season after three years as an assistant coach of the program. His tenure was highlighted by a NCAA Nationals appearance in 2018, the seventh in program history.

In 2020, Rosso helped the GymDawgs finish 12th in the nation on bars, its highest finish on that event since 2004. Washington gymnasts would earn All-American honors on bars for just the third time in program history and earned their second All-Pac-12 honor on bars under Rosso.

He coached Washington's highest-ranked event in 2019, helping the GymDawgs finish 13th in the country on bars. Twice Washington broke 49.400 on bars, putting up the highest bars score since 2004 with a 49.425 before besting that with a 49.575 later in the year. The team won five individual bars event titles.

The Huskies finished the regular season ranked eighth in the country in 2018, their highest regular-season finish ever. That season included Washington's first NCAA Regional event championship since 2012 as Kristyn Hoffa, Zoey Schaefer, and Maya Washington combined to take home a floor championship en route to NCAA Nationals. The GymDawgs recorded four scores of 197 or higher in 2018, tying the program record.

Prior to Washington, Rosso spent time coaching at George Washington, Arizona State and Western Michigan. He also spent two seasons as a team manager at Arkansas.

In 2017 at GW, Rosso helped the Colonials to the East Atlantic Gymnastics League championship and a berth in the NCAA Regionals, where a GW gymnast won the program's first-ever NCAA Regional individual title, on the vault. Two individuals earned individual berths to nationals, the most ever at GW. A total of eight gymnasts earned All-EAGL honors.

At Arizona State, Rosso aided in the development of nine Academic All-Pac-12 gymnasts, three All-Pac-12 selections and five NCAA qualifiers, including an individual regional champion.

A standout gymnast at the University of Michigan, Rosso lettered from 2006-09, helping the Wolverines to the Big Ten title as a senior. He competed at NCAA Championships all four years and finished ninth on still rings in 2007. He also made it to the Big Ten finals on pommel horse and rings in 2007, and to two more finals in 2009, on rings and floor.

He will guide a Nittany Lions' bars group that ranked among the best in the nation in 2021. Penn State's 49.231 NQS on the apparatus ranked second in the northeast region. The team recorded scores of 49+ on eight different occasions in 2021. Individually, Penn State had three gymnasts ranked in the top six in the region on bars, as Ava Verdeflor ranked fourth, Alissa Bonsall ranked fifth and Cassidy Rushlow ranked sixth. Nationally, Penn State ranked 19th on bars. He has also helped lead the Penn State vault unit to a fourth place ranking in the northeast division, led by Cassidy Rushlow's 9.850 NQS.

Why Penn State?

"I chose Penn State because I grew up with the phrase 'We Are...' throughout my family. Both my mom and dad are graduates of Penn State, as well as many other family members. So, I can say that Penn State is in my blood. Throughout the recruiting process, Penn State was the one school that had everything I was looking for. The high standards in both academics and athletics assured me that I will be able to push myself to be successful. To add, the school spirit at Penn State astonished me and I couldn't wait to be a part of it every day. I am very thankful for this opportunity."
